SKETCH OF THE LIFE HISTORY

of

THOMAS JONES I - Born in 1747

and his Descendents.

SKETCH OF
THOMAS JONES I.

THOMAS JONES was born March 24, 1747, possibly in Wales, and died August 7, 1830, aged 83 years, 4 months and 13 days, at his home a mile west of Taneytown, Frederick County Maryland. (In Carroll County since 1837.) He is buried in the old Baptist Cemetery nearby, in the corner of his farm, he having furnished the ground about 1790 and helped establish and build the little Church, which stood on the same plot of ground until 1885 when it was torn down. He and his wife were Baptists. Suitable headstones mark their graves, his being marked as "Thomas Jones Son."

It may be that Thomas went to Taneytown from Liberty (now Libertytown) 12 miles south of Taneytown, where his older brother John Jones lived many years and ran a mill.

Mrs. Penina Jones Morrison a grand daughter of Thomas, in a written statement made about 1913 when she was about 94, stated that when Thomas Jones came to this country from Wales he bought a large tract of land which had on it a log cabin, and this he soon replaced by the stone house. Still in fine condition in 1947.

In 1790 he purchased of Robert Janison the tract of land known as part of "Peggy and Molly's Delight", it being a part of the addition to "Brook's Discovery" on the Rich Lands. His plantation being something over 200 acres in extent at the time. The Deed is dated January 8, 1790 and the price he paid for same was 60 pounds or a little less than $300. The witnesses to the Deed were John Gwyn and John Ross Key the father of Francis Scott Key. The Key Estate "Terra Rubra" being of 2790 acres and but a few miles south of the Jones farm. Thomas Jones was considered a wealthy man in his day, and his will bequeathed money to each of his children except his namesake Thomas II, to whom he gave his "Plantation, as above, containing 203 acres". The Addition to Brook's Discovery on the Rich Lands was a Government grant to James Brooke, April 1754 for 9078 acres.

Along the south border of the farm is a field stone marker about 15 inches high, inscribed roughly "1790 B.S. 10s T.J.". The full significance is not known to the writer, or to the present farm owner, Mr. Wilbert Hess, but it seems likely Thomas Jones had it placed there soon after he purchased the place in 1790.

High on the front gable of the house is a flat stone in the wall inscribed "1876" which Mr. Hess thinks marks the time an addition or ell was built to the house, of stone to match the rest of it. This was built by Henry Wilt when he owned it. Near the highway, to the west of the stone house, was located the "slave house".

Thomas Jones served in the War of the American Revolution. Enlisted in Maryland Troops, July 19, 1776, 3rd Regt. 4th Company. Left the service Jan 1, 1782.

The search for ancestors of Thomas Jones has been thus far unsuccessful. Several Jones wills, back to 1744 are on file in Frederick County Md. Court House, but none we can connect to Thomas.

Thomas Jones married, in April 1775 in Pa. possibly at Phila. ALICE MORRIS, who was born Jan. 10, 1755, probably in or near Phila. Record of this marriage is found in Panna Archives, series 2, Vol. 8. Alice died Dec. 24, 1830 aged 75 years and 11 months at her home, the old stone house just west of Taneytown and buried beside her husband in the Old Baptist cemetery on a corner of the farm. She was the daughter of Cadwallader Morris and Elizabeth Kastner, and grand daughter of Morris Morris, great grand daughter of Cadwallader Morris and great grand daughter of Thomas Morris, who is said, was in Bucks County Pa. in 1720 or 1730.

Some relatives have claimed that this Alice Morris was a sister of Robert Morris, prominent in early National affairs of Revolutionary War times, but we have been unable to verify this from records available of the Robert Morris family.
